They are competing with each other for placing and recognition of their ability and initiative to present their animals to the judges and the public. PARENTS AND OTHER ADULTS ARE TO REFRAIN FROM THE PREPARATION OF LIVESTOCK WHILE AT THE SHOW. This show could not exist without the wonderful cooperation of all of the parents and others, however, the actual work at the show must be done by the exhibitor. If help is needed, exhibitors are encouraged to ask another exhibitor. One warning will be issued if adults are helping. The second occurrence forfeits premiums.

There will be one overall champion in each species chosen by the judge. At the judge's discretion, an overall may be chosen without bringing the top showman for each group back into the ring. This can happen particularly in times of heat and out of concern for animal safety and health. Judge and Superintendent are to have the final say.

Only exhibitors allowed in barns at the time of showing. Adults & parents may mentor from outside the show area. They may not touch the animals.

Large and Small Animal Round Robin Contest

Saturday of fair at 12 pm

Overall youth Grand Champion Fitting and Showing Showman must compete with their own animal (unless there are veterinary or safety concerns). Only one showman per department. If Grand Champion does not show because eligible in more than one department, then the Reserve Champion may compete. Only Grand or Reserve Champions are eligible. If Grand chooses not to show for any reason, he or she forfeits that award for that department(s).

Each department will supply one judge. Contestants will be judged on their ability to handle, show, and answer species questions for points. If a contestant chooses not to handle an animal for any reason the Judge may ask questions on showing techniques for points. However, they would receive no points for handling.

Judging Card Example:

Contestant Name:	Handling: 1 2 3
Species:	Showing: 1 2 3
(1 low 2 average 3 good)	Question: 1 2 3
	Total: _____

Grand Champion Prizes and Awards will be removed from the exhibitor should duties such as Round Robin not be completed. The Reserve Champion would then receive an acknowledgment as the Grand Champion.

Clayton Community Fair August 22, 23, 24, 2025

Meet Us At The JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SALE

Clayton Community Fairgrounds 4616
Wallbridge Road, Clayton, WA
Saturday, the Week of the Fair, at 3:30 pm

Our Livestock Sale will feature outstanding livestock raised by our local youth.
The Code of Ethics of Raising and Selling Livestock will be strictly followed.

PURPOSE OF SALE

1. To guarantee an outlet for our local youths' market project animals.
2. Offer businesses or individuals the opportunity to show support and recognition for youth efforts to raise quality market animals.
3. This is a terminal sale, no animals will be returned to the exhibitors.

BUYERS

Any interested person or business may bid on any animal during the auction. You may bid as an individual or as part of a group on particular animals. If you, your firm, or organization cannot attend the sale but wish to participate, you can do so by proxy. Change of ownership of animals sold will tentatively take place after the sale on Saturday.

HOW THE SALE IS CONDUCTED

There is a clerk for the sale to whom each buyer must present his/her name and address before the sale and receive a number. Arrangements for payment can be made at this time or following the sale. The bidding must begin at the market price of lambs, hogs, or beef as set the Friday before the auction. The amount of money bid above the market price is called support money. Top animals will be auctioned first in each category.

If your bid wins the animal, you have a choice of paying the total bid price and keeping the animal for your own use, or of paying the support money only and turning the animal.

EXAMPLE:

Suppose we have a 120 lb. market lamb. Market price is $1.50 per lb., or $180.00 for the lamb; final bid price is $2.25 per lb., or $270.00. The difference between market price and the bid final price is $90.00, which is deemed support money for the youth exhibitor. As a buyer, you can pay $270.00 and keep the animal for butcher or pay $90.00 and turn the animal over to the stock buyer. With either choice, you receive recognition and advertisement as the buyer of the animal.

THE SUPPORT MONEY YOU PAY MAY BE TAX DEDUCTIBLE

Besides blue and red ribbon sheep, hogs, beef, and market goats, the auction will include the grand and reserve pens of 3 fryer chickens and 3 meat rabbits.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING OUR LOCAL YOUTH!

HERDSMANSHIP

1. Good care of your animal and assigned exhibiting space is an important part of the privilege and responsibility of exhibitor. Because many more people see your animal in the barn than show ring, exhibitors are expected to maintain barn, feeding, and grooming conditions that will insure the good health and safety of the animals in their care, and will show consideration and sensitivity toward the public visiting. Exhibitors are expected to be available to the fair visitor to discuss their exhibit or project. Exhibitors are reminded that they are hosts/hostesses in their barn.
2. The public interest in animal welfare, and their opinion of the quality of care given to animals has become a critical issue.
3. Exhibitors are to perform their own Herdsmanship chores. Herdsmanship chores done by non-exhibitors can result in forfeit of all awards and premiums by the exhibitors involved.
4. Herdsmanship should not be competitive, it is a responsibility that comes with the privilege of participation and demonstrates personal pride and team support.
5. Each superintendent will ask for volunteer adults to monitor the actions of fairgoers, oversee the humane care of the animals and provide support for the exhibitors.
6. Barns and displays will be examined at least twice a day. Failure to maintain adequate standards will result in loss of premiums. Minimum maintenance includes maintaining a fresh water supply, feeding as needed, bedding pen/stall area, decorating the area, and minimal maintenance of aisle ways. The superintendent has the responsibility to determine appropriate assistance levels and may correct situations that go beyond minimal attention by non-exhibitors.
7. Please do not eat or drink while in the penning, stalling, or public areas in livestock and equine or poultry/rabbit barns. This applies to exhibitor and chaperone/parent, etc., and will be enforced by the Fair Association.
8. The Herdsmanship evaluation scores of 80-89 will earn red ribbons, while scores of 90-100 will earn blue ribbons. Scores lower than 80 will receive no ribbons placing and will result in loss of 20 points in the total premiums earned by each member of team or individual. One warning of inadequate Herdsmanship will be given. A no-placing penalty will be assigned at the next Herdsmanship examination if problems have not been corrected. Herdsmanship evaluation will be based on group and individual performance, and all exhibitors within each group will receive the same score.
9. Herdsmanship hours will be scheduled by departments and regular hours will be maintained. Also appropriate Herdsmanship dress is expected.

Herdsmanship scorecard can be found online at claytoncommunityfair.com
